Making clients' lives easier and more successful is what Rosalinda O'Neill does. People, firms, and family legacies have benefitted for decades thanks to Rosalinda empowering them to strengthen their abilities and trust in their actions, and helping them identify what is best to do, what is best not to do, and when and with whom.

Corporate and business leadership and revenue builder, life mentor and California licensed marriage and family therapist for more than three decades, Rosalinda knows how to make clients smarter at making their lives great. She knows her clients deserve happiness, success, and wonderful life moments at the levels they really want; and they need strength and wisdom to cope, succeed, and get through difficult times. With individuals, partnerships, and corporations throughout California, Rosalinda utilizes her You Matter Gr8ness Building® wisdom in one-on-one, partner, and team meetings to help them achieve greatness.
