

As the oldest of five children, I learned to focus on what was best for others to be happy and succeed, Rosalinda says. I now also prioritize what makes me happier and more successful, too. That has been a long journey. Happily, I am still on it.

As part of Rosalinda's teaching, she says, "We human beings do not have to be stuck with what we have or how we are. We have the ability to change and evolve. Time is the currency of our lives." She adds, "I love making it payoff better for those who want more success and a wonderful life, or simply more peace of mind and a greater sense that they matter."

Realizing early on that successful people impose limitations on themselves which undermine their higher goals and wishes, Rosalinda developed her Success Intelligence® Roadmaps assessments and wisdom. She knew this was her life's work. Her clients achieve more appreciation, confidence, peace, and other rewards as husbands and wives, fathers and mothers, workers and leaders, owners and professionals, and friends and achievers in their schools, businesses, and professional and personal lives. Clients learn to stop being harmful to themselves and others too. "I always knew companies and other organizations would benefit greatly," she adds. "And they do."

Rosalinda earned her bachelors in business administration from the University of Miami in Coral Gables, Florida to become a University administrator. She studied law and psychology before leaving her successful Florida corporate and university leadership career for Los Angeles. She completed her master's degree in counseling psychology at LA's Loyola Marymount University while starting her consulting practice and becoming a "wise" clinician, adding wisdom for a successful life to her clients' experience.

Rosalinda's clients undo the lessons from earlier times in their lives that limit them, eliminating anxieties and doubts as they build greater confidence and knowledge. She provides services throughout California as she increases her clients' abilities to communicate clearly and kindly yet confidently, increase value and achieve other quality life goals. Her work includes her trademarked You Matter Gr8ness Building® Time Mastery, Partnership Building, Corporate Leadership, Rainmaking, Succession, Team Building, OD, and Conflict Management Made Easy.
